

2015 Friends of the Sacramento Public Library Board Profiles

Jeff Rubin, President: Jeff is the vice-president of the Elk Grove Friends. As a member of the FSPL Board, Jeff serves on the Bylaws, Branch Liaison, Executive and Strategic Planning Committees. He also has a strong interest in community events and agency partnerships. As a retired disaster medical services manager, Jeff enjoys reading, hiking, and travel.

Pauline Grenbeaux, Vice President: Pauline is the past president of the Arden-Dimick Friends and for two years served as branch liaison to seven affiliate Friends groups. In her first two years as a member of the FSPL Board, she chaired the then-new Library Education and Advocacy Committee and worked with the SPL Foundation and elected officials towards resolution of the City of Sacramento's funding crisis which resulted in Measure B on the ballot. Currently, she chairs the Finance Committee and assists the President with his duties. A retired museum curator and administrator, Pauline loves audiobooks, dancing and ice cream.

Jo Anne Marie, Secretary: Jo Anne is the president of the Valley Hi-North Laguna Friends. She also leads the Management Team at the Book Den and is interested in advocacy and working with other branches. As a retired bank operations officer, she loves to travel and maintains a non-profit website in Spanish.

Margaret Clausen, Treasurer: Margaret retired in 2007 and immediately began volunteering at Arden-Dimick Library. She currently serves as Treasurer on Arden-Dimick's Board of Directors; co-chairs the Book Sales Committee; and chairs Online Sales. Margaret joined FSPL's Board this year and was appointed Treasurer. She chairs the FSPL Endowment Committee and serves on the Executive, Office and Finance Committees. With a 25-year career in non-profit management, she spent the last 15 years prior to retirement as CEO of the California Hospice Foundation and California Hospice & Palliative Care Association. In free time, she enjoys grandchildren, gardening and reading.

Trisha Consunji Hamilton, Board Member: Trish is the president and treasurer of the Central Branch Friends. She is also the Communications Committee Chair, Among Friends Newsletter Editor, and the Among Friends Newsletter Production Editor. She is the publications manager for a non-profit veterinary medical association. In her spare time, Trish enjoys volunteering for various local events and with the Friends as well as traveling, going to concerts, reading, and writing.

Carly Hegle, Board Member: Carly's home branch is North Natomas where she volunteers in the Friends store and the library. She is a member of the Board's training committee and is assisting in drafting suggested modifications to the FSPL policies, procedures and bylaws. Carly just retired from the practice of law in order to spend more time devoted to the loves of her life. They include her husband, attorney Jack Vetter, her dog and two cats, and their vacation home in Puerto Vallarta, Mexico. She enjoys walking, playing tennis, gardening, reading, and traveling.

Joanne Iwamiya, Board Member: Joanne's home branch is Elk Grove, where she is a member of their Board of Directors and is the Chair of the Tutoring/Homework Center. She is Chair of the FSPL Board's Membership Committee as well as Branch Liaison to Southgate and the Bookmobile. As a retired Registered Dietitian Nutritionist (RDN), Joanne loves helping/working with people. In her spare time, she enjoys reading and working multiple forms of needlework, including cross stitch, knitting, bargello, Japanese bunko, and tapestry weaving.

Jerry Jagers, Board Member: Jerry hails from the Rancho Cordova branch where he has just been elected co-president. He worked as an engineer in the aerospace industry from 1958 through 2000 and retired from Lockheed as director of systems engineering and as chief systems engineer. He currently serves on the board of directors and is webmaster for the Sacramento County Grand Juror's Association. Jerry retired to Sacramento in 2004 and enjoys hiking, mountain biking, and kayaking the American River.

Akiba Howard, Board Member:

Darryl Lucien, Board Member: Darryl joined the Board of Directors in November 2014 and is a member of the Library Education and Advocacy Committee. The MLK Library is Darryl's home library branch and he is active in the Meadowview community and in Democratic politics. He has worked in the California State Assembly for the past six years and is committed to finding long term solutions to library funding.

Kim Mitchell, Board Member: Kim joined the Friends in 2013, is a member of the Library Education and Advocacy Committee (LEAC), and joined the Board of Directors in March, 2014. Kim recently received her Master's in Library Science and works for the California State Archives. She is a volunteer for the Lavender Library and Archives. When she gets the chance, Kim enjoys attending the ballet, playing with her cats, reading fantasy novels, and hiking in the Redwoods.

Anita Scuri, Board Member: Anita is a past member of, and served two years as president and 2 years as secretary of the board of the Friends of the Arden-Dimick Library and has volunteered at that branch since she retired in 2012. Anita joined FSPL's Board this year. Anita had a 34-year career of public service providing legal advice to regulatory agencies within the State Dept. of Consumer Affairs.

Chuck Shulock, Board Member: Chuck chairs the Library Advocacy and Outreach Committee and is the board liaison to the Central, Colonial Heights, McClatchy and McKinley branches. Chuck works part time as an environmental policy consultant and, before his retirement, worked at the California Air Resources Board. He enjoys gardening, travel, bicycling, hiking, and reading. His love of libraries began when, as a teenager, he read every science fiction book in the collection of his local library.

Pam Whiteley, Board Member: Pam is the co-president of the Rancho Cordova Friends, her home library. She joined the FSPL board in November 2013 and became part of the Communications Committee. She volunteers at the Book Den Warehouse as a member of the Management Team and the drama section's second sorter. She's also the branch liaison for Orangevale, Fair Oaks, and Rancho Cordova Friends. Pam retired in October of 2013 after 30 years as assistant to the Director of Program Management at Teledyne Electronic Technologies in Rancho Cordova. Pam has been a community activist for many years and also serves as co-president of the Sacramento chapter of PFLAG, a non-profit support organization, having also served as a Mid-Pacific Regional Director for 6 years. She's also the proud mother of Amy Gilbert and Erik Whiteley and proud mother-in-law of Josh Gilbert. When she has free time, Pam enjoys traveling, reading, all kinds of music, cooking, and live theater. She has also been part of pool, dart, horseshoe, and bowling leagues when she was working.
